

The Embassy of the Republic of Yemen in Berlin would like to inform all visitors who wish to travel to Yemen of the new visa regulations introduced lately by the competent authorities:

As of February 2010, entry visas cannot be issued at the Yemeni airports. Visitors will first have to obtain from the Visa Section at the Immigration, Passport and Nationality Authority (PNA) of The Ministry of Interior an Authorization to issue the visa. Based on this Authorization, together with the filled out visa application form, the Embassy would issue the visa.

Your sponsor in Yemen (Business partner for Business Visas, the inviting person or organization for Visitor's Visa, travel agency for Tourist Visas, Language Institute for Study Visas) should apply for your Authorization.

1. The applicant's passport must have a minimum validity of at least six months at the beginning of the journey.
2. The visa application form can be downloaded from this website and sent to the Consulate Section at the address given below together with a recent photo, the passport in original, the visa fees and a prepaid, self-addressed envelope for the return of your passport by registered mail.
3. The visa fee for a single entry visa is 40,- € per person and is valid for three months.
4. Payment can be made either per cheque or transfer to the Consulate bank account mentioned below. Should the payment be made per bank transfer a copy of the bank confirmation should be enclosed. An online printout will be sufficient.
5. In case an international cheque is used then include an additional 15,- € to cover bank charges as well as 8,- € for postage to return the passport by registered mail.
